DANCE CODE OF CONDUCT

EXPECTATIONS FOR BEHAVIOR AT SCHOOL DANCES:

- Use or possession of tobacco, drugs, alcohol, and any mind-altering substances are not permitted for the protection and safety of everyone.
- The parking lot is off-limits unless students are entering or leaving the dance. Loitering will not be permitted.
- There are no re-entries. Once the student leaves the dance, he/she may not return.
- Students will be required to demonstrate good character, maintain high community standards, follow all dance rules, and be courteous to all students and chaperones.
- Sexually explicit or dangerous dancing will not be permitted at any time.
 - Sexually explicit dancing includes: freaking, grinding, inappropriate or vulgar backside dancing, or any other type of dancing that could be construed as provocative or vulgar.
 - Dangerous dancing includes violent or “mosh pit” style dancing.

CONSEQUENCES:

The first time a chaperone talks to a student about inappropriate behavior/dancing will be considered a warning. A second offense will result in dismissal from the dance.
